

Figure S13. Distribution of Half-Life Ratio of upf3Δ to wt. The red line indicates the mean while the blue line indicates the median. The distribution was right skewed as expected with the majority of the transcripts not having a significant change in half-life and the majority of those that do have a significant change being upregulated.