

Figure S3. Example eRNA decay curves illustrating fitting of first-order exponential decay and second-order kinetic models to CPM-normalized eRNA time-course data. Cases where second-order models provide a better fit, and quality control issues such as negative decay rates or transient spikes following consecutive zero-expression measurements are annotated.